Petition to the House of Commons in Parliament assembled, WHEREAS

Canadians want Members of the World Economic Forum, Davos Group, Klaus Schwab advocates, who have taken office in Parliament to be forcibly removed from our government.

- Conflict of Interest Act section 4(8) states, “When performing parliamentary duties and functions, a Member shall not act in any way to further his or her private interests or those of a member of the Member’s family, or to improperly further another person’s or entity’s private interests.” Under the Canadian Conflict of Interest Act (S.C. 2006, c.9, s.2) Prohibited Activities 15 (1) No reporting public office holder shall, except as required in the exercise of his or her official powers, duties and functions, continue as, or become, a director or officer in a corporation or organization.”;
- Breach of Trust: Being an active member of the World Economic Forum's Board of Trustees isn't just a conflict of interest offence, it is a criminal offence: Breach of trust by public officer. (ncio.ca)
Actus Reus (Legal Definition) A “breach of trust” is “any breach of the appropriate standard of responsibility and conduct demanded of the accused by the nature of her office as a senior civil servant of the Crown.” An appropriate standard of responsibility and conduct includes abiding by the Conflict of Interest Act.;
- The National Security and Intelligence Committee of Parliamentarians (NSICOP) briefing regarding the National Security and Intelligence Committee of Parliamentarians Annual Report 2019 section 46. states, “While the majority of elected and appointed officials conduct their business with genuine integrity, some are wittingly or unwittingly subject to foreign interference activities, jeopardizing the integrity of Canada's system of government. Foreign interference activities are targeted at three key areas: the electoral process at all stages; elected officials and their staff; and sub-national areas of government.”
- House of Commons Procedure and Practice, Third Edition, 2017 - Chapter 4 - The House of Commons and Its Members - Responsibilities and Conduct of Members states: “ Members sit in the House of Commons to serve as representatives of the people who have elected them to that office.”;
- It is the sacred Oath of Allegiance and duty of the members of the Government of Canada to guard against rights infringements and guarantee the freedoms of all Canadians and to promote the voice and directives of constituents, not to promote foreign private corporate agenda;
- Criminal Code of Canada - Breach of trust by public officer Section 122 Every official who, in connection with the duties of their office, commits fraud or a breach of trust, whether or not the fraud or breach of trust would be an offence if it were committed in relation to a private person, is guilty of (a) an indictable offence and liable to imprisonment for a term of not more than five years; or (b) an offence punishable on summary conviction.;
- Any law or legislation which oppose the rights and freedoms as outlined in the Canadian Bill of Rights Act is deemed null and void as stated – Part I Section 2. “Every law of Canada shall, unless it is expressly declared by an Act of the Parliament of Canada that it shall operate notwithstanding the Canadian Bill of Rights, be so construed and applied as not to abrogate, abridge or infringe or to authorize the abrogation, abridgment or infringement of any of the rights or freedoms herein recognized and declared” ;
- Canadian Bill of Rights Rights protected in Canada include: (a) the right of the individual to life, liberty, security of the person and enjoyment of property, and the right not to be deprived thereof except by due process of law; (b) the right of the individual to equality before the law and the protection of the law; (c) freedom of religion; (d) freedom of speech; (e) freedom of assembly and association; and (f) freedom of the press. Included is the right not to arbitrary detention, imprisonment, cruel and unusual treatment or punishment, the right to be informed promptly of the reason for arrest or detention, the right to retain and instruct counsel without delay, etc and cannot be altered nor dissolved by legislation;
- Canadians do not consent to WEF Klaus Schwab's Great Reset via operation lockstep agenda nor any other agenda put out by the United Nations or their numerous groups;
- Politicians who are promoting foreign private interest rather than the interests of citizens have broken the public contract and trust and have lost confidence of the Canadian people - Canadians refuse to obey unlawful orders, mandates, or legislation;

We, the undersigned citizens and residents of Canada call upon the House of Commons and the Senate to:

1. Desist implementing unlawful orders, mandates and legislation;

2. Immediately purge Parliament of foreign agents promoting private corporate agenda;

3. Call upon the Conflict of Interest and Ethics Commissioner Minister – Mario Dion to form a committee to investigate foreign corporate agents operating within Parliament;

Canadians feel we are living in a foreign corporate dictatorship that has infiltrated our government and demand closure by: investigating WEF / Davos Group and other foreign entities within the Canadian government, criminally charging and arresting these foreign agents, and the respectful removal of these foreign representatives from Parliament.
